

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.

Some Tourist Information

Why not take a closer look at the province of Skåne and the rest of Sweden in connection with the wedding? Have a look at www.skandetourist.com or www.skanerunt.nu for information about Skåne. For all of Sweden there is the official tourist information website www.visit-sweden.com. Some suggestions of places to visit:

Kristianstad (www.kristianstad.se)

The city of king Christian IV is renown among other things for its shopping and the ecomuseum Kristianstads Vattenrike.

Åhus (www.kristianstad.se/turism/engelska/ahus.asp)

A Swedish summer paradise with white beaches, cobbled streets, half-timbered houses and the Åhusglass ice cream!

Österlen (www.turistbyra.simrishamn.se)

The southeast corner of Skåne with Simrishamn, the fortress Glimmingehus, the prehistoric King's Tomb in Kivik and more.

Kullabygden and the Republic of Ladonia (www.ladonia.net)

A great place for hiking, climbing or bathing. A favourite of the bridal couple. And don't you miss Arx and Nimis!

The Bjärehalvön peninsula (www.bastad.com)

Not only Båstad, the mecca of Swedish tennis, but also Torekov, Hovs hallar and boat trips to Hallands Väderö.

Skånör-Falsterbo (www.vellinge.se/turism/)

The southwest tip of Sweden offers something for all: golf, riding, bird watching and the Foteviken Viking museum.
